As the bells of Notre Dame sound through the famed cathedral in fifteenth-century Paris, Quasimodo, the bellringer who longs to be "Out There", observes all of Paris revelling in the 'Feast of Fools'. Held captive by his devious caretaker, the archdeacon Dom Claude Frolo, he escapes for the day and joins the boisterous crowd, only to be treated cruelly by all but the beautiful Romani woman, Esmeralda. Quasimodo isn't the only one captivated by her free spirit, though – the handsome Captain Phoebus and Frolo are equally enthralled. As the three vie for her attention, Frolo embarks on a mission to destroy the Roma – and it's up to Quasimodo to save them all.
